About Joe LoCicero

Joe pledged TKE in the fall of 1981 and was instantly a leader. His energy and impact on the lives of others was incredible. His Greek activities included Parents' Weekend Coordinator, Chapter VP, Interfraternity Council Officer, and much more. He truly embodied what it means to be a Teke, student leader, and friend.

Individual Awards and Honors: Top Teke Frater 1985, President of Order of Omega, UGA Mr. Greek Week, Vice President of the Order of the Greek Horsemen

“Joe LoCicero was a 1984 Greek Horseman and student leader who conducted his life in such a way that he left an imprint of joy and encouragement on those around him. He embraced and embodied the character traits of integrity, honor, and faith. His is a worthy legacy to follow.”

– The Greek Horsemen, Class of 1985
